

St Mark's Anglican Church, Port Hope Website Policy

Purpose of the website

To inform the members of the Parish of St Mark and the general public about the life, faith and work of the St Mark's Church, its congregations, ministries and affiliated organizations.

To promote the mission of the Anglican Church. To provide resources to help the Parish of St Mark of Port Hope build a healthy, vibrant congregations and manage the day-to-day operations, and to help clergy and churchwardens fulfil their legal, canonical and policy obligations.

Management

The operation, day-to-day administration and ongoing development of the website is handled by the Communications Officer, under the supervision of the Incumbent and Wardens.

Ownership

The Parish of St Mark owns all content on this website, unless otherwise copyrighted. Parishioners, clergy, as well as any other individual or organization, may freely copy and use the resources and other materials on this website, unless otherwise noted. Users are asked to credit the Parish of St Mark of Port Hope, as well as the individual author of a given document, if known.

However, any reproduction, publication, distribution or transmission of this content for financial gain is prohibited without the written permission of the Parish of St Mark.

Editorial

The Communications Officer under the supervision of the Incumbent and the Wardens reserves the right to edit or delete material according to style, space and format requirements. Material submitted for publication will be subject to the standards and schedule of the Communications Department.

Disclaimer

Publication of material on the Parish of St Mark website does not imply an official endorsement by the Parish of St Mark or the Diocese of Toronto or the Anglican Church of Canada. The Parish of St Mark will make every effort to ensure all information is current and up-to-date, but does not take responsibility for information that is subsequently changed or amended without notice being given to the Parish.

Privacy

All content on the Parish of St Mark's website will be handled in accordance with the Diocese of Toronto's Privacy Standards Policy (<http://www.toronto.anglican.ca/parish-administration/policies-guidelines/>).